Gran Habano Blue In Green Cigars by George Rico

Gran Habano Blue In Green cigars present a medium-bodied version of a Gran Habano classic. The Gran Habano Blue in Green cigars are blended using hand-selected tobaccos from the finest vintage tobacco crops to produce a Connecticut wrapped cigar with rich complex flavor that delivers a smooth and creamy smoke.

The complexity comes from the use of fillers from the exceptional sunbathed soils of Nicaragua, which also complements the wrapper, not overpowering the overall profile. Owner and blender George Rico, "This is one cigar that demonstrates that a mild to medium-bodied cigar does not have to be bland," an excellent with coffee in the morning, and a marvellous gateway cigar for newer cigar smokers who want to move into more complex cigars." Try this exceptional cigar from one of the best boutique cigar makers in the business, they are sure to please.
